POLICE INTELLIGENCE. BEFORE O. MAY, ESQ., AND E. W. GOODLAHE, Esq.

JANUARY 11TH. The docks in both the Police courts were literally trammed yesterday morning with prisoners, the majority of whomat must be said were Europeans. There were no less than 'sixteen" drunken scamen, besides one or two more for other offences. The U.S.S. Piscataque men, wore in a decided majority, Uncle Sam's uniform being very conspicuous. A fine of fifty cents was looked upon as sufficient in most cases to satisfy offended justice, and, in fact, what with sympathising friends and the defendants themselves the place looked more like a pay-day on board a man of war that a Police court.
